

Dear parents,

Developing a routine for reading at home is very important for beginner readers. It not only fosters reading comprehension and fluency, but it also develops a love for reading.

Your child will receive a reading log calendar every month, each time your child reads for 10 minutes straight, they can color a box. At the end of the month, please send this calendar back to class.
Sincerely,

Your child's teacher